

HACU 27TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Championing Hispanic Higher Education Success: Securing the American Dream
October 26-28, 2013 • Hilton Chicago • Chicago, IL

Congratulations Stephanie Medina and Noe Hernandez on being selected amongst the 20 recipients nationally! We are really proud of you.

In addition we are funding another student from our cohort, Juan Zepeda, to attend the conference with Stephanie and Noe.

Top undergraduate students from colleges and universities throughout the U.S. and Puerto Rico will be active participants at HACU's 27th Annual Conference in Chicago, IL, October 26-28, 2013. These students represent a wide range of academic disciplines. They arrive with resumes, eager to discuss career, internship, research and advanced education opportunities.

A limited number of scholarships are available to eligible students to attend the HACU conference. Student Track Scholarships will cover costs for: (1) conference registration; (2) travel and lodging for out-of-state students; (3) and conference-related meals (1 per day). Conference Scholarship recipients are required to attend ALL Student Track activities. Scholarships are provided to students by HACU's corporate and federal sponsors.

For additional details please see

http://www.hacu.net/hacu/Annual_Conference_Student_Track.asp