To Log into the Computers

Enter your CSUN Portal username and password.

Use the “CSUN” option under the “Log on to” at the login screen.

CSUN Username

The CSUN username consist of two or three initials and some numbers (ex: xyz12345). The “first.lastname.##” username will not work to log into the computers.

To Get Your Login Information

If you are unsure about your username or password, go to www.csun.edu/account.

Here you will see a link to the “Forgot User ID” page which will help get your username.

You will also see a link to the “Forgot My Password” where you will be able to reset your password.

Problems

If you already have a CSUN account and are certain of the username and password, you may still need to change your password to let you log on to the CECS computers. If this is the case, login to myNorthridge (<http://www.csun.edu>) with your current username and password, and change your password.
