Student Assistants: Enterprise Computing

- Excellent opportunity to learn technology used by large blue chip corporation in US and around the world
  - IBM z/OS operating system, COBOL, Job Control Language
- Qualifications: Juniors/seniors and graduates in CS or CIT. Excellent programming skills essential. Ability to self-learn technology through research and hands-on work (including trial and error.)
- Compensation up to $15/hr; approx 10 hours/week, in lab JD1538B
- May be possible to combine work with academic work (490/696/698)
- Excellent job prospects upon successful completion
- Email letter & resume to shan@csun.edu, include list of classes completed and GPA.