You are required to visit at least two project or thesis defenses before presenting your own defense. Fill out one of these forms each time you visit a defense and be sure to sign it and have it signed by the thesis or project advisor present. Turn in all the completed forms at the same time to your advisor before your defense.

Information and signatures:

Print your name: __________________________________________ Date: _____________

Your signature: __________________________________________

Name of student presenting: _________________________________

Title of student’s presentation: ________________________________

Presenter’s faculty advisor: _________________________________

Signature of presenter’s advisor: ______________________________

Your comments on the presentation: