Journal Entry Responses

Respond to the following prompts for the term that you identified above in the space provided. If you need more space, keep typing in the space.

1. Describe/reflect on how your work with cohort during this period has improved students' interaction with faculty in engineering and computer science.

2. Describe/reflect on how your work with cohort participants has supported the development of student research knowledge and skills.

3. Overall, evaluate your work with cohort participants during the period and share your thoughts about what you think works well and what may need to be changed.
